

MAUREEN CAROL KING

Nashville's recording artist - Maureen Carol King was born in Walnut Creek, California and moved shortly thereafter to a small town in Washington. At age 10, she moved back to the San Francisco Bay Area, which shaped her love for jazz music.

The Bay Area is known for its musical influences and the start of many musical careers. Maureen's love of San Francisco, it's cool music and timeless beauty, inspired the song "It's a Sunny day in San Francisco Bay", which debuted on this album, and Maureen is delighted to report that, "We just finished shooting the Music Video "it's a Sunny day in SF Bay", by award winning Emerald Gate Film Studio.

Maureen's captivating and exquisite vocal creations celebrate life, love and laughter with her passionate, jazzy, bluesy style capturing genuine emotion and immense depth. She attributes her style to many influences, such as Diana Krall, Tony Bennett and Frank Sinatra.

An up and coming Jazz sensation to look out for in the SF area, Maureen is passionate about her music, incorporating a stirring jab of jazz excitement, with real emotional punch.

Her debut CD "I Can Only Imagine" was a huge success in Europe, and the timeless message woven throughout her music is to enjoy life to the fullest through love and helping others!

Her latest and newest YouTube Videos are available for all to behold on her website.

Maureen was inspired by jazz at a very young age and "I just fell in love with the essence of smooth Jazz and it's timeless beauty. Jazz Inspired me to get up, get out and start singing!"

She's currently busy writing new songs and arrangements for the upcoming CD, which promises a few delicious surprises you wouldn't expect on a silky-smooth Jazz CD.

"I like the idea of hearing the music in the distance, you're drawn to it and you want to know what it is. I love the timeless beauty and essence of smooth Jazz. To have it thrown out at you at you almost cheapens it". Understated and captivating defines Maureen through and through.

Maureen's dream is to Tour the USA after her next CD release in 2015. Following her first CD release "I Can Only Imagine" in 2010, which was produced by Grammy-Nominated Brian Green in

The underlying impact has emboldened Maureen to never give up on your dreams and to live each day to their divine fullest. "I feel so blessed and thankful for my second chance at life and I never, ever take that for granted!"
